A Note from Pastor Tim

I took this picture last Sunday of our organist Cindy Phillips playing "He Leadeth Me," the last hymn to be played on the organ that has been a part of worship services at Highland Heights for almost 45 years. In the midst of the excitement about the new organ Cindy will play for the first time in worship this Sunday, our choir director Terry Walker reflected on the old organ. He asked, "I wonder how many hymns this organ has played? How many preludes? How many offertories? How many weddings? How many funerals has it been a part of?" Thank you, Terry and Cindy. Your words and your music touched our hearts.

I love you and hope to see you this Sunday.

Your Pastor and Friend,

Tim
